Mrs. Pauline Gill Harrison
226 Park Street
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Mrs. Harrison:

It was a real shock to me to see the notice of the death of your mother, Mrs. Gill. She seemed so full of life and energy that one might readily have expected her to live to a good old age. I know the loss of her husband must have been very hard for her to bear, but she maintained a cheerful contact with her friends and with the public.

It is the hope and expectation of every Christian that your father and mother, so recently separated, are now reunited. You have my heart-felt sympathy.

Sincerely,

W. C. Simons
