

MRS. CHARLES D. STOUGH, JR.

2120 VERMONT STREET

LAWRENCE, KANSAS

July 24, 1950

Dear Uncle Collie,

You are sweet to worry about us but we ~~be~~ have just discovered that Charles must be in Topeka on the 29th for the Party Council so since we won't be able to get away as early anyway, we better forego Gill Lake entirely and drive straight to the Hills. The Frinks are anxious to get started fishing of course and they will have to wait five days for the Stoughs to get ready, so under the circumstances we will start driving the night of the 29th and drive straight through, arriving at the Hills the afternoon of the 30th.

I hear that you have not been feeling well and of course that worries us. We have been having a wonderful summer so far here...there was no need for anyone to leave town...but it can't last so surely August will be hot here. I'd stay up there as long as I could if I were you.

We are all well and Sally keeps us amused. She talks about you a good deal...every gray haired man in a picture anywhere is Uncle Collie to her and she can't understand why we don't go out to your house to see you. Points to the street and asks that
