Dear Carl and Eileen:

I came home from Nebraska last evening after attending the funeral services of Mrs. Nelson, Marie Simons' mother, and I found myself dead tired, one reason probably being that I had eaten no warm food since breakfast. I felt all right again this morning, but with Rotary and other matters I called you a short while ago and received no answer, so I presumed you had gone, and I regret very much that I did not see you to say goodbye.

I have enjoyed your presence in Lawrence more than I can tell you, and I do not see how anyone could have a smarter or more delightful baby than little Wayne. I am hoping to see Owen's baby on the 24th.

With love and best wishes, I remain
