Mr. and Mrs. Louis Polan
45 West 69th Street
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Polan:

I was pleased to receive the announcement of your recent marriage, and wish for you a long and happy life together.

As you probably know, I am quite fond of Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, who for many years have occupied seats directly in front of mine at our Sunday morning services at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Jordan has been a fine teacher and a worthwhile member of the university staff.

I also recall that my daughter, Dorothea, now Mrs. H. F. Johnson, Wymore, Nebraska, appreciated very much the kindness shown to her by Mrs. Polan some years ago when she visited Europe.

With very best wishes to you for a long and happy married life, I remain

Cordially yours,

W. C. Simons
