Dear Owen and Marie:

I congratulate you on the arrival of your fine baby and will be very happy to see him as soon as it is convenient.

When Eilene was born I started paying $250 to the parents of each newborn child. The check herewith makes the tenth check for $250 that I have written for new babies. I think perhaps that with the arrival of Marilyn's baby I may have to call it quits, but it's mighty fine to have children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

I shall be glad to have you write me more fully in regard to the little chap--the color of his hair and eyes and so forth.

Love and congratulations to all three of you.

Love,
