Dearest Granddad

Bob and I returned Sunday, and found your good letter and nice Easter present waiting for us. Thank you loads for both. I haven't cashed the check yet, as I'm waiting to get down town to buy something for the house with it. There are always things we need, and want - so your generous present certainly is appreciated.

I had a grand time at home. It was so much fun having Eileen, Carl & Wayne there. Dad had some pretty low days while we were there but the last few were better ones.

We all pray that it won't be long before he really starts to heal. His sickness is so hard on Mother - and it seems a miracle to me, how Dad manages to take it so well. They appreciate your good letters & messages of cheer so much.

Bob took a business trip into Kansas while I stayed in Tulsa - & picked me & the dog up Sunday. Our puppy, unfortunately gets car sick & it's a chore to take him with us.

I spent most of my time visiting with the folks - but did find time to have
