and has also shown appreciation for the help given him by Margaret. I hope that I may be fortunate in securing someone else who can look after matters in the satisfactory way that you and Andy and Margaret and Otis have carried on.

While I am deeply appreciative of Margaret and Otis, and they have my best wishes, they do not seem quite so close to me as you and Andy. I am always very glad to hear from you, and I am proud of your success.

With love and very best wishes, I remain,

Cordially yours,
