had to admit I didn't know - but remarked that it "sounded" very much like you. Then your letter came a few weeks ago and you wrote if your husband his wife going to Lima + Rio via Braniff - I wondered if they didn't stop in Canal Zone on the trip and if so, I'm sorry you didn't have them call me.

You speak of your desire for travel being gone - I know how you feel - For three or four years after I lost "Whit" I wouldn't go anywhere - but after a while I felt that I should make every effort to lead the same normal life that I had always led and travelling had been such a joy. Of course it isn't the same alone, but there are many wonderful people in the world and travelling affords you an opportunity of meeting so many you wouldn't otherwise have the opportunity of knowing - And it does help you adjust yourself to changes. You should try it again.

So your daughters are all away from Lawrence. It is wonderful for you to have your son with you and I know it is most gratifying to have him in business with you -
