Dear Miss Skilton:

This is a delayed answer to your letter of December 26 in which you very kindly sent us an obituary of your grandmother.

I remember so clearly when your mother was a bride, and I had a life-long admiration for your father. I may have told you that at one time Mrs. Simons said that if a noted educator or someone well known in literature or art because of their achievement should come to Lawrence, she knew of no one here more fitted to receive them than your father.

I had an exchange of Christmas cards with your sister, Vivian.

Sincerely yours,

W. C. Simons
