a great deal of company for me and I shall also make more rapid improvements in music than I now do.
I have been giving my little brother some of his first lessons in writing he will likely learn to write better by his learning to draw some first. I have been teaching my little younger brothers the alphabet. I have read to day an incident of the revolution, and I have read a Mothers Story which I think very interesting. To day the weather is very pleasant indeed, how thankful we ought to be to think I have a kind Mother and Father My Mother Just passed me and imprinted a kiss upon my face and then left the room, another and another day has passed we are fellow travelers to a world to a world of Spirits we know not the hour nor day when our spirits may take its flight Oh's ought we not to be prepared for this great and solemn O we should answer in the affirmative
