

September 15, 1926.

Mrs. Calla G. Gregg,
Muelbach Hotel,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Cousin Calla:

Your letter of the 13th to hand this morning. We shall be mighty glad to have you come in to see us, but it will be necessary for us to secure rooms for you at the hotel as we are all torn up at home with decorators.

At the present time the paper has been removed from four rooms and two halls and the stuff from these rooms is piled elsewhere. We were delayed somewhat in getting to this work and have been torn up for two weeks or more.

However, we have a very comfortable hotel here, where you can spend the night, and you can join with us in our meals which have to be served on the dining porch. This is fine in hot weather but not so good when it turns cool. This is the first time in five years that we couldn't entertain you entirely in our own home.

We shall all be very glad to see you. We had a nice visit with Norma and the children all were quite delighted with her. We shall be very glad to meet Mr. Gregg.

Looking forward with pleasure to seeing you, I remain

Cordially your cousin,