Dearest Dad -

A week today since I left you in Lawrence and I've been very busy during this interim. Nevertheless I have always apologized when I haven't written, so please forgive me.

As you may know, Dad and I drove to Dallas City Friday and spent the week end in company of Bob's guests. I've had a very busy week, first (8 stitches in heel) then to the action from - let's see, particularly a course of Teranylin - all 7 weeks made him feel very junk. He called for Marilyn's brunch on Saturday A.M. where she had about 50 guests.
