Dear Marilyn,

I appreciate very much your letter and I don't have to tell you how fond I have always been of you. I think Bob is a fine boy and I know that you are very happy together.

On account of an infection or injury to Pat's eye, Blanche has not been here yet and I don't know just when she will be.

As I have told you before, I was pleased with my acquaintance with Bob's family and feel sure that you have some mighty nice "in-laws". I think it is fine that you children get together as often as you do. Make the most of it because life has a way of scattering us around so that we can not ever see each other as frequently as we should like.

You are a mighty sweet girl and I hope you will write to me often.

Lovingly,

WCS:en
