

January 1951

Dear Grandad,

We certainly enjoy your letters and wish we lived a little closer to each other so we could see each other more often.
Wayne has improved his vocabulary somewhat with "pretty", "dirty" and "hot".
Of course it still has some little "busy-fingers".

Marilyn spent the past week with us and then Bob came in on the ~~week~~^{end} after traveling on business all week.

I'm looking for the joke in ~~something~~ this afternoon. I understood Katie coming on up to visit with you for a while.

I certainly enjoyed visiting with Aunt Marie when she & Daryl were here for the Press Conference. He came out
