

Sengatnek April 11/1852

The pleasant month of April has again arrived it will soon bring my birth day, my health is quite good what a great blessing I have been reading in the Bible and have been studying my French lesson I have not formally ~~any~~ some time I have not had much time I have got along very well in my French, we have received a letter from my two cousins and my aunt Seymour we have had a large party a temperance party held happy I ought to feel to think my father is a good temperance ~~man~~ it is the sabbath I have not been to church to day I took a short walk with my mother I have written a composition upon the subject of religion, April 1852, It is the sabbath and I have read in the Bible and finished the disciples Guide to day and read a piece about the loving wife and several pieces in a little magazine I have also taken a short walk I have not written in my Journal for some time I have studied and taught my little brothers it is late and I will close.
