Dear Mary Beth and Charles:

I have just written to your mama and had a visit from Mike yesterday or the day before.

We had a fine time together this summer, and I hope that another year, Charles will be able to join you at the lake. If everything goes well, there will be another important member of your family, who will probably be a little too young to swim.

Everything is moving along smoothly at home with Mr. and Mrs. Scott looking after things. We had a little excitement last night in the early evening, when their little dog discovered an intruder in our basement. After quite some time, Dolph and Dolph Jr. came out with a shotgun and the intruder was found to be a squirrel. How it had gotten into the basement, I do not know. It might possibly have come down thru a chimney, but that is questionable.

There doesn't seem to be anything special to write you about at this time, but I am always glad to hear from you, and to know that everything is moving along nicely.

Lovingly,

Your Grandfather
