

Mrs. Walter Gregg, January 17, 1951

two weeks in this well-known hotel but that was before it was rebuilt.

Dolph has two sons who will doubtless see military service soon. One will complete his freshman year with the closing of this term, and the other will graduate. It is our hope and expectation that they will carry on the business.

With love and best wishes, I remain

Your cousin,

W. C. Simons
