

So far I have been able to find everything I have looked for. The Scotts are taking hold nicely and Elinor has taken up well where you left off. I am glad that you are really getting settled down as your home life since your marriage has been interfered with in so many ways.

You were almost real members of my family and I shall be very happy to have you make the old homestead your stopping place at any time you have occasion to come to Lawrence. With real affection for you both, I remain,

Cordially yours,
