Dear Lawrence friend: we are always so glad to think of you as one of our many friends remaining in Lawrence, where, some how, we have still very deep interests. We really should revisit our friends there. For we are all aging upward, and as the Chinese sage remarked: "The path of friendship to the door of a friend should be often traveled lest it grow over with weeds." We might visit Kansas many some times in 1951, but national and world conditions make plans quite uncertain. The work in Korea seems a bit less, but we have a heavy program ahead just the same.

It was fine receiving your nice Christmas Card and your letter of 7th December. We hope that you spent your Christmas as planned. It may, or may not, have been, a "White Christmas" for weather reports. Here, we
