

Thursday, Dec. 13, 1951

Dear "M. C.":

Hearty congratulations on that 60th anniversary I have been reading about today. It should be a deservedly proud day for you. Not often can a man look back over 60 years of such service in one community. Again hearty congratulations.

This should be the place to tell you of my appreciation of your leadership, not only in the field of the press, but as a civic leader in many fields where