To the Simons family:

I am putting this in the form of a letter because I want to express thanks for the different gifts received from you: the blue tie from John, the book, "Mr. Jones, Meet the Master", from Dolph, Jr, also "The Maine Man In the Making" from John, and the carafe from Dolph and Marie.

I think the family was very generous indeed with me.

I appreciate all of the remembrances very much and hope that the year we have now entered will be full of happiness and pleasure for you.

Lovingly,

Dad
