

Nov. 4, 1927

Dear Louis

I had rather Julia would be angry with me than to angry at myself, so I have mailed my letter to Dr. Gardner and will send a copy to Julia a day or two later as I want him to think over it awhile before she offers her sympathy. I ~~am~~ am also sending a copy to Grace and I think that Etoile should have one as well.

That chap doesn't look like a Jew for nothing.

In mentioning the matter contained in the second paragraph of the letter, offers him an opportunity to get down from his perch with grace.

What is the difference anyway? Julia ~~was~~ was perfectly willing to cut down his bill thru bombarding him with the zephyrs of compliments, while I prefer to make my campaign with solid shot. The purpose behind the two ~~is~~ is identical.

Janet is here for the week end. Better come up. Dolph ~~leaves~~ leaves tonight for Lincoln, Neb. to see the game and to be a guest at a sorority party.

I am in rather of a hard place regarding bringing Dr. back to town. I dont like to deny him a refuge, and the folks feel that it is a serious interference with home life. Today I shall carry an adv for a room with board in the south part of town. If I can find anything suitable I shall be willing to pay the bill till things work out. If the medicine business should go over it w uld make him independent financially.

Lots of love.

Collie.