

was uneventful. We found no bad roads at all and no snow till we got to Manhattan. They had a real storm here last Friday but the snow has all gone now. In fact it's raised every day this week. This morning the sun is shining & perhaps we're going to have some nice weather now. I hope so.

We been spending ^{extra} money catching up on some conspendence. Last night we went to a High School basket ball dinner at which Ray Evans spoke. He was very good I thought - not such an impressive speaker but his material was excellent and his advice to the boys sound. Afterward they showed some movies
