Dear Mary Beth, Charles and Mighty Mite,

It was mighty nice to look in on you not so long ago. I think you are very comfortably situated and in a nice part of town. Pretty soon you will be wanting to know about the school advantages and I presume you will find them all right. In your case it is not quite like the old gentlemen of 80 who married a woman of similar age, who in seeking a location, wanted to live near a good school.

It won't be any time at all until our little blue-eyed rascal will be toddling off to school.

Give Charles as well as the baby my love.

Lovingly,

Grandad
