

I shall be happy when conditions permit your retirement from the Marines to take up your responsibility with the Journal-World. When you think deeply of the matter, the publisher of a newspaper is in the service of his country or should be and is ever alert to aiding the advancement of his country's progress and to defend her rights in every way.

Whoever we have for president should be given our loyal support, but let us hope that in the future we shall choose wisely and select men who merit our greatest confidence.

We love you very much and are proud of you.

Lovingly,

Grandad
