

Oct. 25, 1927

Dear old Louis:-

You havent acted natural for the last week or ten days and I am afraid that I hurt your feelings, something that I would not have done intentionally for a thousand dollars.

I expected you Sunday and as it is I havent had a game of golf since you were here last, with one exception. Blanche and Mother Reineke were up and they said they had phones Jess to ask if you would not like to rise up with them and she said you were on the golf field. I wonder if it was a stall or if you are back again. I hope everything is O. K. and that it always will continue to be.

Will send you herewith a letter from Julia, two in fact, one I held to show you Sunday and the other came in today. She must be having a heck of a time. Also a letter from Etoile, altho she probably wrote you too.

Got a letter from Dr. today which indicates that he isn't quite as happy there as he expected to be and I should not be surprised if he were to come in on us again most any time. It's all right if he does. Just a little hard on the furniture, but whats the difference.

Send some of your friends who have bad stomachs and see if they will use a remedy, without charge, under the condition that they are to tell me what it has done for them. I want testimonials. If the matter works out successfully I shall feel like getting behind it to make it a real go. Perhaps we could do real well. Now cheer up
Come up and tell me about it.
Lots of love from your old blundering brother. Kol.