

I could talk to you tonight and
consume all of the time allotted to me
without referring to
my former paper -

I believe, that I
could touch your hearts with the trials
of your forebears and
make you love them,
for what they were
and tried to be -

We have every reason to honor and respect
them - Others have labored and we have entered into their labor -