

If there is anything we can do, that we have not done, in the matter of co-operation, we want to know it.

We are working together, as citizens and patriots, to support the health and morale of the community, and to aid to our utmost our men and women in the armed forces, that victory may be complete and soon.