

The War and Prohibition.

Story of long distance phone experience--Will be singing Star Spangled Banner in Berlin.

Mr. Burt's advantage of me in having a Barrel. The story of the dog eating his sermon

When you know a nations God and religion--you know the nation and its people--you know what they think, their desires etc.

We ascribe to God those attributes only, a germ of which we find in our own experience. We who have no pity nor compassion cannot conceive of it ~~as~~ being a characteristic of God.

Germany worships Odin. Pictures him in her song, story and religious worship. State controlled ^{church} ~~snuch~~. Praying for "Der Tag" four years before the war. A nation of liars--looking to Frederick the Great as their guide--he who said--the value of a treaty

When war broke out the world was astonished--How it came about-- Each nation issued books placing the blame on the other group. It seemed a war without a purpose, a foolish struggle which might well have been avoided.

At first we thought we should be neutrality--Then we saw the light--saw Germany as she was an is. Life long plan of German Emperor and German People-- Kaiser is the Anti-Christ. No Christ in his religion. No place for the weak. Cannot even respect a teacher who said "the weak shall inherit the earth."

Germany an illustration of Materialism gone Mad.

A worship of wealth and power. Kaiser in his egotism ranks himself with the almighty and his nobles, valuing the power passed on to them, uphold him in his vagaries. Common people are simply cannon fodder and in their cramped and fettered minds place tremendous values in the little decorations given them

Tell Jake Cohn's story of Jew decoration.
