TO THE STATE CHAIRMEN FOR NEW ACTIVITIES:-

Most of the State Societies have appointed their Chairmen for New Activities, many have appointed entire Committees and there is every indication excellent results will be accomplished.

The particular activities which appeal most to any given State Society and the lines along which they will be pursued are primarily matters for each State Chairman or Committee, to decide in the light of the interests of the membership of the particular State Society and of the opportunities of service which exist or may be developed.

I ask that you formulate a definite program, if you have not already done so, deciding which of the Nine Activities your State Society will emphasize and what projects you will carry on under these Activities. When you have done so, will you please inform me of your program.

Please free to call on me for advice or assistance. but primarily each State Society should work out its own program.

I shall look forward to learning your program.

Very truly yours

Chairman of New Activities.
