D- WCS chat

Polly Dyer m. Ann Lewis - Stonington Conn - Jan 22 - 1778

The United States along with all of the other great nations of the world is suffering from the results of appalling, long continued and wide spreading greed. Nearly everyone will agree with this statement, but like Thomas Nast's famous cartoon, each is pointing his thumb or finger at the other.

As a matter of fact it is hard to find any interest that is blameless. Capital for its visible evidence of having prospered is generally singled out as the arch malefactor, but a little further consideration will perhaps bring the realization that capital has been more sinned against, than sinning.

"That he who careth not for his own, is worse than an infidel" has been the watch cry to excuse every selfish, cruel and inhuman act from which the world has suffered. While many have been christian in their private affairs, in mass action they have entirely lost sight of the interests of others.

(A grandson of Ann Collins and James Gowdy was named Collins

Note: Gowdy relatives in Connecticut did not know where Ann Collins had died, but Collins Gowdy, her grandson and namesake, said that when the family went to Western New York, evidently following the close of the Revolutionary War, that Ann Collins Gowdy, then an old lady and undoubtedly, occurred at the Gowdy farm near Old Constantia, and burial place is not recorded. May have been entered on ground later submerged to form the water supply for Rome, New York.
