

Mexico

October 3, 1928.

Mr. McKendree Johnson,
318 West 105th St.,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Johnson:

My letter of September 3rd was written in a great hurry and I wish to follow it up with one of a more personal nature.

I enjoyed very much my short acquaintance with you in the City of Mexico and remember well the pleasant evening at the home of Jack Star-Hunt to which we were invited by reason of your kindness. I hope that some of the leads I suggested may have been worth while to you.

Mrs. Simons and I had a very pleasant visit in Old Mexico and as I expressed it in a short talk in San Antonio, we found it to be "a land of suppressed emotion." Things will probably work out in time, but conditions are so uncertain that I would not care to invest capital in Mexican industry.

Our return home was greatly saddened by the sudden death of our youngest child, a fine boy of thirteen. He died very suddenly, about thirty-six hours after our return.

I should be glad to hear from you to know how you finally get located.

Sincerely yours,

WCS-HM
