Dear Mr. Simons:-

It was indeed a pleasure to receive from you the other day a copy of the "National Printer Journalist" in which appeared your address at the Kansas Convention.

Needless to say I read this address with the greatest interest, not so much from the point of view of the theme (of which I am lamentably ignorant) but more from the fact of having had the pleasure, under rather unusual circumstances, of meeting and having the privilege of knowing its author.

Things are very much the same here and unfortunately we have not had a similar delightful invasion since you were here.

If you want any poetry for your paper please let me know, I have a real " he-poem " about the way automobiles kill people which might interest you!

If you ever write to our mutual friend and ex-Congressman who liked the Holland gin please remember me to him and tell him to write to me.

With kindest personal regards to Mrs. Simons and yourself, believe me to be,

Very sincerely yours,
