Mr. A. J. Baldwin,
McGrade & Benton,
206 East 11th Street,
Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Mr. Baldwin:

I received your letter this morning but was awaiting momentarily word from another source. This afternoon your call was taken at the office and when I tried to get you a few minutes ago I was informed that the call had been cancelled. I thank you very much for your courtesy in trying to locate me, but I have had offered me a proposition that appeals to us.

We are offered an excellent room on the New Amsterdam, with bath and toilet, at a considerable saving as compared to the prices quoted by you. I presume it will be unnecessary for us to notify Mr. Norris as most of our correspondence has been with you.

We look forward with a good deal of pleasure to our trip.

Thanking you again for your kindness, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
