Mr. W.C. Simons,
The Lawrence Daily Journal-World,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Simons:

I am sure that I failed to make clear to you that my point was not to find a sale for my coverlet but to be sure, since it is enhansed by such an interesting history, that I put it where it rightfully belongs and will be most appreciated.

Right now a museum in Houston is exhibiting the coverlet and I have been asked to loan it to exhibit at Dallas at the Centennial Exposition. We are celebrating our hundredth birthday in Texas, you understand.

In a few weeks I may let you know that you may have the coverlet. I have refused to consider selling it to antique dealers although The Stroude Antique Shop in Dallas is offering me sixty dollars for it.

With keenest appreciation of your interest, I am,

Cordially yours,

Mrs. Geo. H. Morley
