

Farmer and stockman. Donor of Westminster Hall to K. U. Listed in records but may not have been a member of Sons and Daughters of New England.

Charles Livingston Edwards:

Civil war soldier, first school teacher in Lawrence. Daughter, Virginia.

James D. Faxon

Col. Henry Martyn Green:

Norwich, Connecticut. Ed Law. Record - State Senator - Lieut. Col. U. S. A. - Civil war. Minister.

Trustee of Lane University at Lecompton. Nine children.

Gurdon Grovenor:

Lumber. (Carter's Station) Board of Education, City Council, Mayor three times. Stalwart member of First Baptist Church.

Col. H. S. Hall:

Lost right arm at "P" (perhaps Petersburg). Brevetted General for gallant services. Of New England ancestry. Father of Clarence S. Hall, well known newspaper man.

Franklin Haskell:

Born Vermont. Was a member of Dr. Robinson's Co. Arrived in Lawrence Sept. 16, 1854. Father of Capt. John Gideon and Dudley Chase H. (Left Yale.) Shoe merchant, athlete, baseball, silver ball, mammoth bat, homerun. Died in Congress after securing Indian School.

W. E. Hazen and Mrs. Hazen:

Son Leonard at Tonganoxie.

The Learnard Family:

Col. Oscar E. Learnard married the beautiful daughter of Col. Shalor W. Eldridge. He came originally from Burlington, Vermont, and was one of the founders of Burlington, Kansas. Lived on tract of ground directly North of Haskell Stadium - house facing North on