

Dear Mr. Simons—

At a meeting of the New England dinner board, the other evening, you were chosen as chairman of a Nominating Committee for next year's officers. Will you please consult with Miss Kate Riggs and Doctor Guy Smith and propose names of candidates for officers as follows:

President (present, Fred W. Raymond)

Vice Pres (Rev. D. O. Weatherbee)

Secretary (Prof. Roy Towne)

Treasurer (Prof. M. E. Rice)

Exec. Com (Rev. W. P. Ames)

E. W. Young
Miss Rose Morgan
~~Miss Bessie Wilder~~

Library Com (Miss May Riggs
Miss Bessie Wilder
~~Miss Rose Morgan~~
Miss Gertrude Gilmore)

Historian (Doctor Edward Bumgardner)

Nekrologist (Miss Edith Beach)

Music Com. (Dean J. M. Swarthout)

N.B. Mr. Weatherbee has gone from Lawrence; the secretary, treasurer, historian, and music committeeman have been more or less continuing officers; Miss Beach is very reluctant to act as nekrologist because of small acquaintance with old families here.
