

Haru, the man east of Olson's place, had 3 men with him for 3 days, and they had wonderful luck. Guess we just lost our luck for fishing. Tonight he went with a couple men from Braided out to Millaca, the Masons are having a fake dinner, and they are to help fill the larder so I am alone.

Every thing is burning up, no rain at all. The army worms are very bad in some place, they sprayed our places, and not so much here, altho we drove in to town Sunday morn and the road was covered with them, south of ~~the~~ road wasn't sprayed so we are hoping they are not
