Dear Dolph:

I just picked up the May 24th issue of Editor and Publisher and was shocked to see the story of your fathers death. He had, ofcourse, lived a long and active life but it's still a shock when this happens.

I respected your father as I do few individuals with whom I have had contact. You will never know how much he did for me and how much I appreciated it. I always rated him as one of the top if not the top newspaper men I have ever known and you can certainly be proud to be his son.

With sincere sympathy,

Sincerely,

Ormond
