Dear Dolph:

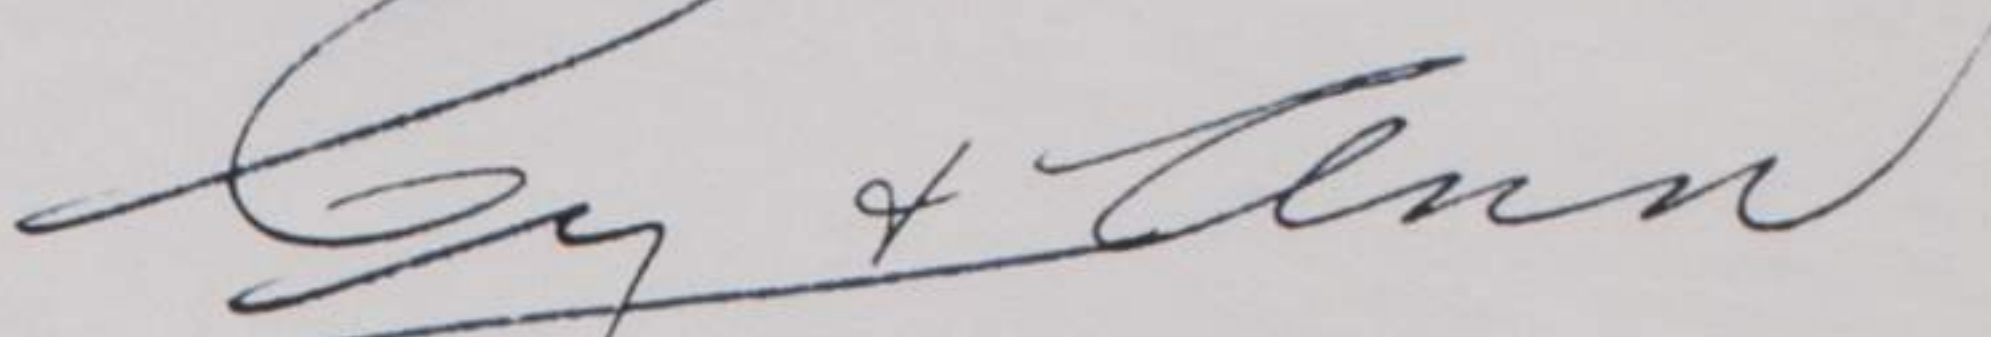

After having been out of town for about ten days I returned to the office this morning and the story regarding your father's passing was called to my attention.

I want you to know that both Ann and I want to extend to you our sincere sympathy in your loss. Your father really was a grand fellow, Dolph, and you were indeed fortunate to have him with you all the years that you did.

We just wanted you to know that we were thinking about you.

With warm personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

C. G. Shannon
