

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS MUSEUM OF ART
LAWRENCE, KANSAS

Dear Dolyh.

There is, of course, not much to say at such a time. But I know that when the pain of the moment is gone you will remember only the honor and the distinction, and your own sorrow at your loss will be assuaged by the knowledge that your father built well and greatly in the city of Lawrence and that you are his heir. Certainly no two men have more determined the tone of a community nor been its true leaders for so long its existence than you and your father have been. And it must have pleased him well to know that you have carried on in the tradition he founded.

Sincerely yours,

John Maxon

Maxon

17 May 1952

en