Dear Dolph:

I have just read in tonight's paper - - with sincere regret - - of the passing of your father. I realize there is not much friends can do to be of help in a time like this, but I do want you to know I am thinking of you.

You know you have my deepest sympathy.
If there is anything I can do to be of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Your father was a fine man and a real gentleman. He did many wonderful things for you and you in turn have always been a most loyal and faithful son.

Sincerely

Bill
