My dear Mr. Simons: Just read in the Tribune where your father passed away. He was a wonderful man, and had lived a long and useful life, and his good deeds and his strength of character will be remembered for a long, long time. As my mother told me years ago "We live in our children", so I am pleased to see that you are carrying on the good work and living in the same old Simons tradition. With men like your dad, and with the inspirations that they have carried to the country, the republic may come out of this mess after all. Extend my greetings to your sisters. I do not know them, but I know that the Simons tradition will live.

Sincerely,

Grant Utley
