Dear Marie and Ralph:

I want you to know how very sorry I felt when I read in the Washington Star of the passing of your father. Mr. Simcox was a wonderful man, and a fine journalist, and had a long and useful life which I know is a great consolation to you.

Please express my sympathy to Blanche.
I've never forgotten how kind she was to me when I was a freshman at K. U.

We were so sorry not to see you when you were in Washington but with Howard leaving the next day for the Mediterranean we were rather on the jump. Howard tried to get you after you talked to me but you were not in.

Our deepest sympathy,

Sincerely, Jean B. Yeager^{and}
