

FLYING HIGH—Scott Gudmundson, George Washington half-back, tried gliding to pick up 8 yards on this play, against Kansas yesterday at Griffith Stadium. Gudmundson, a sophomore starting his first game for the Colonials, bore the brunt of his team's attack, but failed to reach pay dirt. He was in the air continually, somersaulting like an acrobat. About to close in for the tackle when this photo was snapped was Don Pierce (24) Kansas center.
