Mr. George Hollingbery
307 North Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

Dear George:

I find myself willing to try to discuss most any subject, but I have given up on football. Maybe it's old age or maybe I am worn out on football because I find that K. U. Athletic troubles don't bother me anywhere near as much as they did a few years back.

I continue to hear good things about you and yours, and I would like to make a tour of inspection in that new Hollingbery mansion. Your mother told Marie that among the minor social activities in your home was a recent tea for three or four hundred people. I take it the rumor about the size of your beautiful new home is not unfounded.

Marie and I would certainly enjoy spending a weekend with you and it may be that we can get up Chicago way sometime this winter.

My best wishes to you and all members of the Hollingbery family.

Sincerely,

DS:DMF
