

November 24, 1931

Dear Mary Jule:

Birthdays and celebrations have been coming so thick and fast lately that I have pretty nearly fallen by the wayside.

I got to thinking that perhaps the fur coat you bought with the five dollars I sent you last year may need some repairs so here is another check for like amount.

Give my love to your mamma and to all inquiring friends.

Lovingly your uncle,