Dear Bus:

We are all so sorry to hear about your mother's fall, but mother tells me she is a good sport about it and thinks it could be a lot worse.

Please don't go to so much trouble about those shells. I can use those two boxes you already have lined up, but I would rather you wouldn't go to any more effort because it just isn't worth it. I do appreciate your interest.

I have some duck loads but the opening day decided to use some light quail loads to save the heavier stuff for later in the season. Much to my surprise the quail loads worked pretty good so I am in better shape than I thought. We didn't have many ducks the opening day, but we should have some good flights this fall according to the duck experts.

We are all looking forward to a happy gathering on November 14th.

Love to all,
