

I have been with Mr. Bambridge and he says it will do, if you will stick to the paper you have a copy of
 And then the said West went away and in half an Hour afterwards came again to this Examinant & said that he the said West had been at Westminster and that Bambridge was attending there And further said to this Examinant There is an Order come down for you to attend the Committee to day To which this Examinant answered he did not know he was not ^{positive whether he should or not}
 And then the said West repeated, If you will stick by that it will all do, you will have your liberty.
 I must go to Bambridge who is waiting at the lobby
 And the said West then further said to this Exam.
 If you & & go before them whatever Questions they ask you, never spare them stick by that, that will do, and you will have your Liberty. And the said West further said That now at the Breaking up of the House the Fire would be out And that the Lord Chief Justice Eyre was Resolved to Transport Godnor and Campbell for perjury & Subornation
 And this Examinant further saith That the said Bambridge sent this Examinant two Bottles of Brandy and said he would send this Examinant anything Wine Brandy or Malt Liquor And this Examinant hath been informed and verily believes that the Son of the ^{said} Lord Chief Justice Eyre frequently comes to Mr. Huggins in the press Yard of Newgate
