few days after he came to the Gate and the Turnkey was a going to let him in which I seeing I asked Richard Ackerman who is the Turnkey of the prep Yard who the Villian came to who replyd I thought he came to you, I answered come to me, He is a Villian a Rogue, and a Spy about the Goal & that he wanted me to perjure my Self and Campbelle—hearing that made no Reply but turned short on his Heel and went away. — Campbelle not only—endeavoured to Engage me and my Wife in committ-ing the aforesaid perjury but used means with others and prepared written papers for that purpose which I communicated to Mr. West & Mr. Bambridge at large not doubting but they would have found means to have putt a stop to such wicked practices but not knowing the Reason of their Silence and being sensible of your Regard for that Honourable person with whom you formerly lived I think my Self obliged in Justice to Truth to have this matter made known And as I suffered my Self so much by perjured Villians I desire you to take the Trouble of assisting Mr. West in speedily argu-ing My Lord Chief Justice Eyre therewith from.

This is the paper Mr. Beatniff wrote before me as a copy of the Original he ^{Bambridge} gott me to sign before I read it, nor have I read the Original But Beatniff read the Original and gave me this as a copy, and to the best of my Remembrance this is a real Copy
